Brazilian Dancers debut at Hull New Theatre

Brazil's finest dance company will dazzle Hull New Theatre with two exclusive performances next spring.

In association with the Dance Consortium, the venue hosts the highly acclaimed São Paulo Dance Company from 1 - 2 March.

Fusing the elegance of classical ballet with the sensuality of Latin American dance, this company of virtuoso dancers present a rich programme of work from three choreographers rooted in Latin American or Spanish culture.

The resident choreographer with Carlos Acosta's company Acosta Danza, Goyo Montero explores the idea of collective identities in Anthem, an epic and emotionally charged ensemble piece for 14 dancers, beautifully staged with dramatic lighting.

This amazing performance also features direction from Nacho Duato - Artistic Director of the Berlin State Ballet - and Brazilian choreographer Cassi Abranche drawing on the Mediterranean colours and flavours of Valencia. All powered by the hypnotic, ritualistic music of North Africa exploring the movement of each dancer's body to the percussive beats and bass grooves.
